

THE AFFIRMATIONS by Rev. Thomas Young

He teaches best those who are lowest in brokenness and humility. Until we come to the absolute admission that we are nothing and capable only of failure, we will seek to achieve, to become knowledgeable, to become recognized.

This is a misjudgment, for both the naturally weak and the naturally strong require the life of God. Nothing we receive in the old creation is satisfactory to Him. This is not a choosing of weakness with their will but is rather a disbelieving in their own strength just as they distrust their own talents.

Now if each new convert will faithfully determine in his heart to do exactly what God lays on his soul to do, the marvelous walk with Jesus will begin. A new life actually in Christ begins to happen. But every step will be proceeded and accompanied by denying what Self wants and what Self wishes.

Self must never be permitted to make another decision in your life. You must settle it forever and fix your will like a rock: "Jesus is now Lord of my life. He sits on the throne of my heart."

Now the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.

-- Luke 8:14 (NKJV)

I affirm that my weaknesses, resources, and comfort are placed under the Lordship of Christ.

There are two acts going on continually before the throne of God

INTERCESSION – ACCUSATION

*Hebrews 7:25 Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them.

*Revelation 12:10 Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, "Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down.

I affirm that I will not call criticism, discernment. I will join with Jesus to intercede, not join with Satan to accuse.

“Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet Before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. And he will turn The hearts of the fathers to the children, And the hearts of the children to their fathers, Lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.” Malachi 4:5-6

He must increase, but I must decrease. John 3:30

One of the great tragedies of Church History has been the way leaders of each move of God have become opposers and persecutors of succeeding moves.

Only one remedy will keep leaders from ultimately falling into this terrible trap – seeking the humility and nature of John the Baptist. He was one of the greatest types of true spiritual ministry.

His whole purpose in life was to prepare the way for Jesus, to point to Him, then to decrease as the greater One increased (see John 3:30). John’s joy was to see the One who followed him going further than he went.

On the other hand, if we are part of an emerging generation, we must realize that the pride of thinking we are better than those who went before us can disqualify us from going any further ourselves. The only commandment with a promise is that which commands us to honor our fathers and mothers, referring to both our natural and spiritual fathers and mothers.

The promise is that you will “remain long in the land which the Lord has given you.” (Exod. 20:12). Our spiritual longevity is directly related to this one issue.

I affirm that the spirit of Elijah must come, and by the grace of God I will honor my spiritual fathers who precede me in service.

I affirm I will place my gifts and strengths under the younger, not to exalt myself but to lift others. I will decrease so that those whom I disciple can increase.

Luke 14:11 For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

James 4:10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

1 Peter 5:6 Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time,

The evil spirits of self-promotion and territorial preservation have done much damage to the Church. They have caused many potentially great leaders to be disqualified from receiving further anointing and authority.

The influence we gain by our own self-promotion or manipulation will become a stumbling block that keeps us from attaining positions that God would have otherwise given to us.

-- Overcoming Evil in the Last Days -- Page 49 – Rick Joyner

We must learn to receive as an unspoiled child.

We want what is ours too quickly,

we want what is not ours,

we aren't thankful for what we do have.

Most ills of society are based on this fact.
